

House Resolution No. 1040

Whereas, upon occasion the members of the Missouri House of Representatives pause to recognize those outstanding Missouri citizens who have displayed a tremendous amount of dedication to the teaching profession; and

Whereas, Elden Taylor, an esteemed resident of Union, Missouri, will officially retire from the Grandview R-II School District on May 21, 2004, after a successful career that has spanned twenty-one rewarding years; and

Whereas, throughout his stellar career as a high school science teacher, Elden Taylor has played an integral role in shaping the lives of numerous youngsters and has greatly enjoyed watching as his students have grown to become successful, productive adults; and

Whereas, Elden Taylor has distinguished himself as a friend to many students and has been instrumental in the success of the Grandview R-II School District through his important roles as coach of the girls basketball team and as a leader in environmental science; and

Whereas, Elden Taylor looks forward to his retirement so that he can spend more quality time in the company of his devoted wife, Rebecca Taylor; and

Whereas, it is entirely fitting and proper that this legislative body should pay tribute to Elden Taylor, a wonderful educator who will be greatly missed by all those who had the distinct pleasure of knowing and working with him:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, unanimously join in expressing our most sincere appreciation to Elden Taylor for his twenty-one years of unparalleled service to the Grandview R-II School District, and in wishing him the long, fulfilling, and enjoyable retirement he so richly deserves; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Elden Taylor.
